

The Silverline – The Last Song – Lyric's

That's why I'm here

Ken Royster David Baird Patsy Toop

Throws a leg over the seat of that stingray bike
A little pilot bout to make his maiden flight
Daddy don't let go cause he's full of fear
He says don't you worry boy
that's why I'm here

Rolls down the hill but he's flyin Solo
Daddys close behind to keep him from a tumble
Puts on the brakes for a perfect landing
Grinning ear to ear now he's understanding

That's why I'm here, A promise everlasting
Throughout the years endless in Times passing
Solid as a rock a little nudge when you need it
Knowing when to let you fall teach you how not to repeat it
Your shelter when the storms of life appear
That's why I'm here

50 trips around the sun that bikes covered in rust
His daddy's slowing down but he ain't giving it up
Just a helping hand out of his favorite chair
And just like him, that's why I'm here

That's why I'm here, A promise everlasting
Throughout the years, endless in Times passing
Solid as a rock, a little nudge when you need it
Giving endless love and showing that you're needed
Your shelter when the storms of life appear
That's why I'm here

The torch is passed I send up a prayer
I've got a broken heart and God says

That's why I'm here, A promise everlasting
Throughout the years endless in Times passing
Solid as a rock a little nudge when you need it
Knowing when to let you fall, teach you how not to repeat it
Your shelter when the storms of life appear
That's why I'm here
