

Big Surprise

Verse 1
Just a baby girl
Seeing greys and blues
Cute dressed in pink and woollen boots
She's got her mother's style

Verse 2
Welcome to our world
We hope you like what's here
We'll do our best to help you through
And maintain that smile

Pre Chorus
I never thought I'd get another sweet daughter
I thought that bit was all done
I'd hoped the wife wouldn't place another order
But I guess making her was fun

Chorus
Boadicea, what a big surprise
Just a little girl in nappies and she's here to brighten up our lives
Little Boadicea, what a special surprise
I get the meaning of the universe
When I look into your blue eyes, your blue eyes

Verse 3
Soon you'll go to school
And skin your knees
You'll have pony tails, wear a party dress
Then you'll be seventeen

Verse 3
You're Daddy's not a fool
So be home by ten
No more Barbie toys, you'll rather play with boys
I'll need to know where you've been

Pre Chorus
God I'm much too young to be a Grandfather
That's a thought that could leave you cold
You know I think that I'd really much rather that you
Stayed just six weeks old

Chorus Boadicea, what a big surprise
Just a little girl in nappies and she's here to brighten up our lives
Little Boadicea, what a special surprise
I get the meaning of the universe
When I look into your blue eyes, your blue eyes

Chorus Boadicea, what a big surprise
Just a little girl in nappies and she's here to brighten up our lives
Little Boadicea, what a special surprise
I get the meaning of the universe
When I look into your blue eyes, your blue eyes

© P. Salter