Ashley Cook – Saltbush on the Breeze

“Saltbush on the Breeze” is Ashley’s fifth Single from his latest album “For Country, The Flag & Me”; produced by one of the most respected producers and guitarists of this genre, Lindsay Butler OAM and recorded at the LBS Studios in Tamworth.

The song relates to an old stockman settling in the city upon retirement after spending most of his life on the land. Even though he is extremely well off and living in luxury, he would give anything to be back with his stockman mates, with a saddle for a pillow and the stars for a ceiling.

Ashley’s authenticity is recognised by the leading writers in the country and “Saltbush On The Breeze” is a classic original bush ballad, written especially for his new album, by legendary writers, Kelly & Marion Dixon and Shaza Leigh.

Ashley was honoured to be inducted into the Australian Country Music Hands of Fame in 2019 and the Australian Country Music Wall of Honour in 2009. He is a six time winner of the Queensland Bush Balladeer of the Year at the Gold Medallion Media Awards and in 2017 was also named National Male Artist of the Year on radio, after gaining the most votes by members of the media.

Ashley Cook is the real deal and his body of work places him high amongst the best in his field.
