Larry Cann – Tamworth Gold

"Tamworth Gold" was born while Larry was on the road heading to the annual country music festival, which also includes the ABCRA Rodeo National Finals in Tamworth, NSW.

While driving the New England highway he was thinking how the country artists dreamed of winning a golden guitar and cowboys and cowgirls were chasing gold buckles for Australian champions.

From this thought the idea of chasing Tamworth Gold was born.

Fast forward from January to April 2023 Larry caught up with prolific songwriter, Allan Caswell and within 90mins the song was completed, a paralleled story of chasing gold buckles and singers chasing golden guitars all coming together in Tamworth.

This is the second song Larry has released that Allan has helped bring to life lyrics. The top 20 rodeo hit, "Some Kind Of Cowboy" was also a Caswell/Cann co-write.
