Ashley Cook – Diamonds From The Moon

Ashley Cook is undisputedly one of Australia’s most successful bush balladeers.

Storytellers like Ashley enjoy a significant following in Australia especially amongst the mature country music audience.

This new single follows the success of his previous hit single ‘The Great Outback’ which has just propelled him into the finals of The 2024 Traditional Country Music Awards of Australia in the ‘Male Single of the Year’ category.

‘Diamond’s From The Moon’ written by renowned bush ballad writers, Shaza Leigh OWB with the late Rick Aitchison, was released on Ashley’s latest of eight career albums ‘The Country, The Flag & Me’.

This album has achieved high praise as one of the most traditional bush ballad album’s released in recent times and has already racked up a string of hit singles.

This little gem highlights the importance and rarity of true friends in a world of hustle and bustle.

They are as ‘rare as Diamonds From The Moon’.

Ashley Cook is a most popular bush balladeer on the country music radar with a great deal to still offer the world of bush balladry and Australian country music on the whole.
