I hear a voice
I hear it say to me
“This good ol’ world is heading for Catastrophe”.

Lord only knows if there working on a Master Plan.
Stand by and watch now
I bet they’re gonna kick the can
down the road.

The politician man
he says he stands for all.
There’ll be no debate until he has to take the fall.

Lord only knows if he’s working to a Master Plan.
Stand by and watch now
I bet he’s gonna kick the can
down the road.

The Master Plan
The Master Plan

They say they know what’s best for me
But I’d rather choose my own destiny.
I say it’s high time
we came up with a Master Plan
Of our own.

I hear a voice
I hear it say to me
“This good ol’ world
is heading for some misery”.

And now we know that there never was a Master Plan.
Stand by and watch now
I bet they’re gonna kick the can
down the road.

They say they know what’s best for me
But I’d rather choose my own destiny.
We say it’s high time
we came up with a Master Plan
of our own.
