

Tamara Shamini – LYRICS - A Letter To Ame

Ame I've been trying to find the words
To tell you that I love you
I'm so glad I found you
Lately I've been thinking to myself
Cause I don't wanna lose you
When my whole worlds around you

I know I do things so carelessly
But I tell you with a bleeding heart
You are the one, you're the best of me

My hopeless romantic
A strong visionary
You are so perfect just the way that you are
A friend and a lover
A beautiful mother
You are so perfect just the way that you are

For all this time, you've been my hero
When I've gone to zero in my life
And on this ride, I thank you for loving me

My hopeless romantic
A strong visionary
You are so perfect just the way that you are
A friend and a lover
A beautiful mother
You are so perfect just the way that you are

We dreamt we sailed the seven seas
We raised a perfect family
Our hearts were made for you and me
My hopeless romantic

I will love
I will love
I'll love you always
