Anthony Baxter – Christmas Day At Hanging Rock

With his much-anticipated debut solo instrumental album on the horizon, Anthony is set to release his latest single, Christmas Day at Hanging Rock, written by Shaza Leigh.

This track brings a light-hearted, festive spirit to his catalogue, featuring beautiful instrumentation and arrangements by the LBS Team.

This new release offers a perfect holiday melody, weaving the warmth and charm of Christmas into the timeless sound of Anthony's guitar.

The upcoming album marks an exciting milestone in Anthony's career, as it will be his first solo instrumental album. Prior to this, he collaborated with Australian guitar legend Lindsay Butler OAM on a joint instrumental CD, and earlier in his career, he released an EP.

With this debut solo album, Anthony is poised to further establish himself as one of Australia's premier instrumental guitarists.

Anthony's music is more than just sound, it's an experience, one that transports listeners to the heart of the Australian landscape and speaks to the emotional core of the human experience.

Anthony's guitar work continues to leave a lasting impression, and his future in the Australian music scene looks brighter than ever.
