Tamara Shamini – A Letter To Ame

Tamara Shamini is an internationally award-winning singer-songwriter based in Melbourne.

With an extensive career as a recording artist and songwriter, she has a global fanbase with radio airplay in Asia, North and South America and Europe, as well at home in Australia.

Tamara's flare for writing and performing different genres has gone from strength to strength. Tamara loves to challenge herself with her music and her new track "A Letter to Ame" is no exception.

Her growing fanbase of nearly 400 thousand fans on Facebook and another 20 thousand on Instagram are waiting in anticipation for her upcoming album to be released in 2025.

Tamara wrote 'A Letter to Ame' about a husband's words to his dying wife. He reminisces on the wonderful attributes she has, what she has achieve and the impact she has made to his life. To say these words to her in person, he finds difficult. Instead he decided to write it in a letter addressed to Ame, his first and last love.

Written and composed by Tamara herself and produced by the team at TACK Group in 2024, 'A Letter to Ame' is inspired by real life events - sometimes expressing how much you love someone can be the hardest thing, especially when it may be the last chance you get.
