Kelly Hamilton – Taken

Indie rock/country artist Kelly Hamilton is stepping into a new chapter with her full name and a rawer, more grounded sound. Known for her stripped-back arrangements, honest lyricism, and a sonic identity rooted in denim, boots, leather jacket and backroad honesty, Kelly’s music sits at the crossroads of indie vulnerability and country soul.

Her new single “Taken” is a raw, intimate song about the quiet kind of heartbreak—the kind that settles in silence and lingers long after the moment’s passed. It’s a conversation that never happened—until now. With stripped-back grit and emotional clarity, Kelly confronts the damage left by someone who hid behind lies, addiction, and regret. The song becomes a reckoning: part challenge, part goodbye.

Written in a turning point of personal healing, Taken isn’t just about heartbreak. It’s about reclaiming power, choosing truth, and letting go.

Recorded at The Songstore, mixed, mastered and produced by Adrian Hannan
