Patsy & Dave – After The Storm

Celebrated Australian country music legend James Blundell teams up with the dynamic country duo Patsy & Dave for a powerful new single, "After the Storm." This heartfelt song captures the true spirit of resilience and hope, shining a light on how regional Australians come together to rebuild their lives after devastating floods, fires, and storms.

"After the Storm" tells the inspiring story of rising from hardship, embodying strength, courage, and the unwavering Aussie spirit. The collaboration between James Blundell and Patsy & Dave blends rich vocals and authentic storytelling, creating a moving tribute to those who face nature's fury yet never give up. James Blundell shared, "This song is a celebration of the incredible determination and heart of regional Australia. It's about standing tall, supporting one another, and moving forward no matter what challenges come our way." Patsy & Dave add, "Working with James on 'After the Storm' has been an amazing journey. Together, we wanted to honour the resilience we see every day in our communities."

The release of "After the Storm" comes at a crucial time as many parts of Australia continue to recover from recent natural disasters. The song offers comfort and encouragement, reminding listeners that even in the darkest times, hope and renewal are always possible.

"After the Storm" is now available on all major streaming platforms. Fans of Australian country music and those touched by the spirit of community will find this anthem both moving and uplifting.
