No Promises - Midnight Rider

No PROMISES are an alt-country duo from South Gippsland, Australia, blending relatable storytelling with modern Americana edge. Fronted by powerhouse vocalist Janine Garvey and guitar-slinger Eric Collier, the pair craft songs that feel both deeply personal and made for the open road.

Their music draws on the raw honesty of country, with the energy of rock and the soul of folk, creating a sound that's equally at home in smoky bars, on festival stages, or on the soundtrack of a long drive. Known for their strong onstage chemistry and emotionally charged live shows, No PROMISES delivers lyrics that resonate, wrapped in rich harmonies and fiery guitar work.

Since forming, they've been steadily building a loyal following, turning heads with their single "Those Boots" — a stomping, flirty anthem that's all swagger and charm (reaching number 2 on the regional AMRAP charts) — and the epic "Underground," a melodic, emotionally charged anthem about finding connection amongst the chaos. (Reaching number 1 on the regional AMRAP charts)

The duo are currently working on their third album with acclaimed producer Matt Fell, which is slated for release in July 2026.

Authentic storytellers, No PROMISES captures the spirit of two artists chasing the song wherever it leads — no smoke, no mirrors, just great music and stories that connect.

Performing as a duo, or backed with their band, No PROMISES are one act you don't want to miss.
